NO 32.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

authorized to announce
M. WILLIAMSON, as a candidate for the 7th District, subsection of the Democratic Convention.

AGU Must Act.

Cleveland has badly mapped out policy upon the tariff representatives in Tennessee are with him on the issue, but it is utterly satisfy the great mass of the party as such is for the conduct of five representatives.

These five or six Senators impudently stand upon the Senate and announce legislation shall be enacted of the kind they desire as these five or six can cause a caucus of Democrats and tie them hand and foot by some sort of the prisoners seem to public, so long will the hands be flouted and their laughed. These Senators the people the question: going to do about it?
the people in conventions meetings and through the responsible.

sponsible in their tenure of office to come these bosses any order, then, that party are growing weak, that fealty to is being a thing of the past, party principles and pledges are being looked upon as mere tricks to catch voters and having this purpose are put aside until after election refreshing and a change before they are again held before the eyes of voters.

They are not easily humbugged.
They know what their public duties are and whether they tempting to put in force the uses made upon the stump and in conventions. It is not required of Congress now that he give to his constituents an account of his stewardship. Modern Congress is forming the people of the nation of Congress have made it impossible. They already know in he has served them and in he has failed, and he finds they have questions to ask which he cannot answer.

In this session of Congress closes will be some most pertinent and important questions asked, and the answers have to be direct ones.
Some are such that the mere fact of the chosen nominee of the party no longer has the pledge to have, and the pledge of last Thursday shows that the party is over the state.
The people want relief from oppression levied by the General Assembly for the benefit of trusts, monopolies and combines. They believe the Democratic party would give them relief and they placed the party in power.

No wonder the people will say they are still of this opinion.
The Democratic Senate and legislation at this session will be a guarantee that the pledges solemnly made will be fulfilled, that relief will be given, that trusts, monopolies and combines shall no longer demand tribute levied at the dictation of their officers, how can the party go before ask for their continued loyalty now can they expect to be independent voters—the party is legion and the region of the party go before advocating Democratic principles it stands out in bold relief that Democratic Senators will attempt to live up to the pledges of the party?
The next House of Representatives there will be no further tariff or financial legislation during this Administration.
Legislation, or tariff legislation, or financial legislation, will be playing the party's hands and desire to repeal such legislation. The Democratic party before the country this fall will be indorsement; it has to submit its chosen servants to the people at the polls unless it can show the people their interests have been served by the House of Democracy to the House of Congress will only

Who Will Come to the Rescue?

We doubt not, we say, that there is a large majority of the members of the House of Representatives who would gladly seize the opportunity, if offered to them, of voting for the Senate bill.
Where is the man who can make or find a way of affording to those members a chance to vote as their constituents desire them to vote? Who will come to the rescue of a gagged House of Representatives?—Richmond, Va.,

PAIN MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo.
Gentlemen:—My little girl, three years old, had suffered for two years of her life with a very bad form of dysentery. I tried several remedies without any benefit, and had good physicians pronounce her case incurable. I was finally induced to try Grove's Baby Bowel Remedy, and I am proud to say that she is entirely cured.

I believe it is the best medicine for all forms of diarrhoea and Summer Complaint, that was ever sold.
Yours truly,
